

MINOR IN HOSPITALITY AND EVENT MANAGEMENT

The minor in Hospitality and Event Management provides a rigorous and flexible curriculum for students interested in various aspects of hospitality and event management. The minor will enhance students' understanding of hospitality and event management and broaden career opportunities. The flexibility of the minor allows students to tailor the minor to numerous aspects of hospitality segments including lodging, restaurants, tourism, customer services, recreation, transportation, meetings, and events.

Learning Objectives

Upon successful completion, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of five management functions related to hospitality operations: (1) planning, (2) organizing, (3) staffing, (4) directing, and (5) controlling.
2. Apply critical thinking and problem-solving skills within hospitality operations.
3. Exercise leadership and team management skills necessary for success in a diverse and changing business landscape.

Learn more about the Minor in Hospitality and Event Management on the Department of Food Science and Human Nutrition website.