

MAJOR IN ENGLISH, ENGLISH EDUCATION CONCENTRATION

The English Education concentration prepares students to teach English Language Arts in secondary schools. Students take courses in language, literature, and writing in the English Department and learn practical methods for teaching from an equity-based perspective. Students also take courses through the School of Education that equip them to pursue a Colorado teaching endorsement in English Language Arts, and they apply their knowledge and skills by working with students in area schools.

To change your major to English with an English Education Concentration, you can either call the College of Liberal Arts Academic Advising Center at 970-491-3117 or send an email to cla_advising@colostate.edu. More information is available on <https://advising.libarts.colostate.edu>.
