

MINOR IN GERMAN

Requirements Effective Fall 2015

All students minoring in German must complete a minimum of 21 credits in the language of the minor, of which at least 15 credits must be upper-division (300- to 400-level).

Additional coursework may be required due to prerequisites.

All majors and minors in the department must earn a minimum grade of C (a grade of C- is not acceptable) in each upper-division course that carries the LGER subject code. Courses taught in English may not be used to meet the requirements for the minor.

¹ Students must complete lower-division language courses or place out of lower-division courses through the online placement test. Students who place into LGER 201 or LGER 300 will have to replace some or all of the lower-division credits with upper-division German classes or other language-appropriate, department-approved, non-LGER courses.

² Designated courses count toward the culture or literature requirement.

³ Other courses, such as LGER 495 or LGER 290 may be petitioned to substitute for one of the courses below.

Any transferred language courses, other than gtPathways courses, will be evaluated by the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures for equivalency to CSU language courses or as substitutions for CSU language courses.
