¹ No more than six credits of these German elective courses may be taken in English.

² If a student has credit for LGER 200 and LGER 201, they only need to take one additional elective course in their junior year.

⁴ LGER 492 may be taken for up to six credits.

⁵ Select enough elective credits to bring the program total to a minimum of 120 credits, of which at least 42 must be upper-division (300- to 400-level). A minimum of 9 elective credits must be upper-division.
