The School of Music, Theatre, and Dance at CSU provides a rigorous undergraduate educational experience.

CSU Music believes that music is both an artistic and intellectual pursuit. We offer intense training in specialized music disciplines combined with a balance of core music courses in music history and theory. Our renowned and versatile faculty are committed to helping students discover their own unique identities through music. We offer Bachelor of Music (B.M.) degrees in Music Therapy, Music Education, Music Composition, and Music Performance, as well as a Bachelor of Arts in Music (B.A.). Additionally, a music minor is available to undergraduates.

CSU Theatre offers a comprehensive undergraduate education for performers and designers, emphasizing a reciprocal relationship between practice and scholarly study. Students explore every aspect of theatre, including the theory and practice of acting, singing, theatrical design, stage management, technical theatre, dramaturgy, dramatic criticism, storytelling, and playwriting. Students pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre (B.A.) choose a concentration: Performance, Musical Theatre, Set Design, Lighting Design and Technology, Projection Design and Technology, or Sound Design and Technology. Each concentration provides fundamental skills and experiences in theatre within a liberal arts context. Our community-minded program is embedded within the larger School of Music, Theatre, and Dance, affording our students the opportunity to collaborate with their peers across the performing arts in various venues.

CSU Dance offers programs in classical and contemporary dance education culminating in either a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance (B.F.A.), a Bachelor of Fine Arts with a concentration in Dance Education (B.F.A.), or a Bachelor of Arts in Dance (B.A.). Students focus on areas such as performance, technique, and foundations; performance and repertoire; choreography and improvisation; pedagogy and teaching methodologies; history and theory; and technical production and design. Guest artists and masterclasses are a regular occurrence. Our challenging curriculum that merges career preparation with a liberal arts foundation serves as a catalyst for shaping skilled performers and well-rounded individuals. In all dance degrees, students engage in experiential coursework, work in leadership roles, and benefit from live musical accompaniment in technique classes.

The School of Music, Theatre, and Dance offers graduate programs leading to the Master of Music (M.M.), offering students the skills and experience necessary to become highly skilled music educators, music therapists, performing artists, and conductors.

The vibrant learning environment fosters and supports creativity and growth while high standards of teaching, scholarship, performance and research are developed. We are pleased to offer small academic classes, applied study with highly qualified faculty, and careful attention to advising. With over 100 performance dates a year, performance opportunities are extensive and the department represents the arts on campus in a highly visible and prestigious environment.

Applicants to graduate programs in music must have a B.M., B.M.E., or equivalent bachelor's degree. Students interested in graduate work should refer to the Graduate and Professional Bulletin (<http://catalog.colostate.edu/general-catalog/graduate-bulletin/>) and the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance (<https://smt.d.colostate.edu/>).
