

MINOR IN POLITICAL SCIENCE

The minor in Political Science provides a sound academic core for students in other social science or non-social science majors who are interested in politics. It may be particularly useful for persons preparing themselves for careers in law, teaching in the social sciences, journalism, and public service.

For further information on adding Political Science as a minor, please contact Lauren Tighe at lauren.tighe@colostate.edu or visit Clark C346.
