

MINOR IN ENVIRONMENTAL SOCIOLOGY

---

Through this minor, students will gain sociological understanding of a variety of issues related to the natural environment and related regulatory and institutional contexts, environmental inequalities and injustices, and solutions to them. Energy, food, water, and other environmental systems are central to this minor. This coursework will help prepare students who wish to work in a variety of fields, including those related to environmental sustainability, environmental and social justice, environmental agencies and non-profits, and environmental regulations.

To add an Environmental Sociology minor, contact the department at (970) 491-6044 or cla-soc\_dept\_info@mail.colostate.edu.