MASTER OF SCIENCE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE, PLAN A

The Master of Science in Computer Science, Plan A is a research-based degree which includes coursework, research, and a thesis. The degree is appropriate for students who intend to go on to work in computer science research and development for industry or government, or those seeking more advanced research training in a computer science Ph.D. program.

Students interested in graduate work should refer to the Graduate and Professional Bulletin.