

LEGAL STUDIES-LEGL (LEGL)

Courses

LEGL 205 Contemporary Legal Studies Credits: 3 (3-0-0)

Course Description: Introduction to sources and contemporary principles of law in the United States and to the study and practice of law.

Prerequisite: None.

Registration Information: Sections may be offered: Online. Credit not allowed for both LB 205 and LEGL 205.

Terms Offered: Fall, Spring, Summer.

Grade Mode: Traditional.

Special Course Fee: No.

LEGL 360 Mock Trial Credits: 3 (3-0-0)

Course Description: Aspects of trial court procedure and litigation process, including opening statements, physical and demonstrative evidence introduction, direct and cross-examination of witnesses, objections, responses to objections, and closing arguments. Role play of civil and criminal courtroom action.

Prerequisite: LEGL 360.

Restriction: Must not be a: Freshman.

Registration Information: Sophomore standing. Credit not allowed for both LB 360 and LEGL 360.

Term Offered: Spring.

Grade Mode: Traditional.

Special Course Fee: No.

LEGL 460A Study Abroad--Italy: Comparative Legal Studies Credits: 3 (0-0-3)

Course Description: Study the legal system in Italy versus the United States. Consider the following: the Italian court system and legislature, labor law (trade unions), business law (launching/operating a business), criminal law (specifically organized crime), civil law (Italian civil law vs Vatican law).

Prerequisite: None.

Restriction: Must not be a: Freshman.

Registration Information: Sophomore standing. Credit not allowed for both LB 460A and LEGL 460A.

Term Offered: Summer.

Grade Mode: Traditional.

Special Course Fee: No.